Dedication

The 1985 Yearbook Staff proudly dedicates this year's edition of THE HIGHLIGHTER to Mr. Richard Weigle and Mrs. Carol Buruss for their many years of devoted service to the students here at Maxson School.

We shall always remember you and will forever be grateful to you for your caring and sharing.

Principal's Message

To the Graduating Class of 1985:

Think of your promotion from the eighth grade at Maxson, into the ninth grade of high school, as a beginning of a new era rather than an ending.

You are moving into a very important stage of your life--high school. Every day will offer you new challenges, opportunities, and experiences. Strive to make each day successful and rewarding. Whatever you accomplish will be to your advantage and the more effort you exert, the better prepared you will be for future ventures.

Try not to look back and apologize for the things you should have done, but look ahead and be determined to reach goals you have personally established. Teachers, parents, and administrators will offer guidance and support and you must share their trust and confidence. Discuss problems that concern you and the wisdom of others.

You must realize that you, alone, are the key to your future. You must develop sound study skills and self-discipline and be prepared to make important decisions about your own life.

We, the staff at Maxson, wish you happiness, good health, and success in the years ahead.

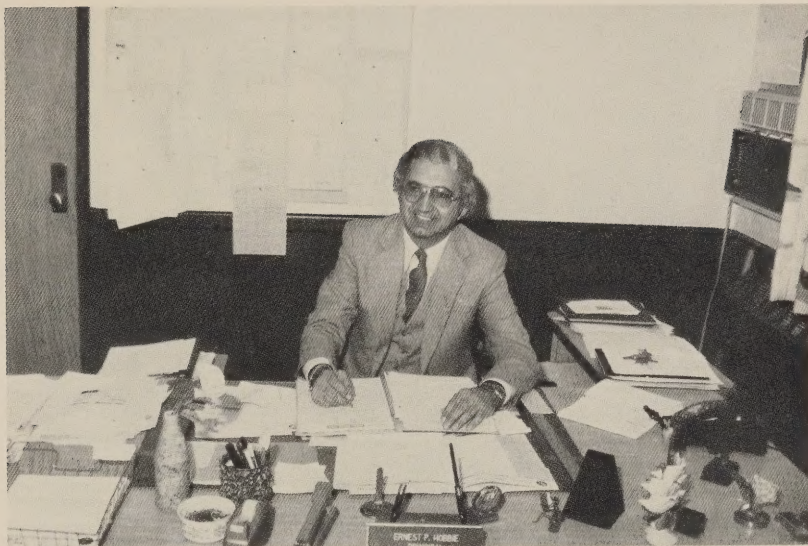

Your principal,
